Pulses trade body donates 5,000 disaster relief kits to WB govt

New Delhi, Jun 26 (PTI) Pulses trade body IPGA on Friday handed over 5,000 disaster relief kits to the West Bengal government for distribution to under-privileged citizens affected by the Cyclone Amphan in Kolkata.

Each relief kit contains 5 kg of rice, 1 kg of masoor dal, 1 kg of sugar, 1 kg of salt and 1 litre of edible oil.

The India Pulses and Grains Association (IPGA) handed over the relief material to West Bengal Disaster Management Minister Javed Ahmed Khan, an official statement said.

"Cyclone Amphan has created havoc in Kolkata and the after-effects have been tremendous. People are still suffering and unable to resume normal life. Daily livelihood has been impacted and getting food for survival is a challenge. IPGA will always support the state government in every possible situation, especially natural calamities," IPGA Convenor East Zone Anurag Tulshan said.

The overall contribution from the pulses trade body to the PM-CARES Fund is close to Rs 5 crore. This is over and above the contribution made by IPGA members in the form of foodgrains, sanitisers, masks, gloves and similar essential commodities and products.

"As the nodal body of the pulses trade, we are proud to be a part of all the relief work done so far and will always support all the state and central government efforts during such unprecedented times," IPGA Vice-Chairman Bimal Kothari said.

IPGA provides 5000 disaster relief kits to under-privileged citizens affected by Cyclone Amphan

India Pulses and Grains Association (IPGA), the nodal body for India's pulses trade and industry today handed over 5000 disaster relief kits to Javed Ahmed Khan, MIC Disaster Management and Civil Defence, West Bengal to be distributed to the under-privileged citizens affected by the Cyclone Amphan in Kolkata. Each relief kit contains 5 kgs Rice, 1 kg Masoor Dal, 1 kg Sugar, 1 kg Salt and 1 litre Edible Oil.

Anurag Tulshan – IPGA Convenor, East Zone speaking about the initiative said, “Cyclone Amphan has created a havoc in Kolkata and the after effects have been tremendous. People are still suffering and unable to resume normal life. Daily livelihood has been impacted and getting food for survival is a challenge. IPGA decided to step up its contribution by providing 5000 disaster relief kits to the under privileged citizens of Kolkata. IPGA will always support the state government in every possible situation especially natural calamities.”

While commenting on IPGA's overall contribution to the nation Bimal Kothari, Vice Chairman – IPGA said, “This initiative is third in the series of overall contribution of the pulses trade to the nation amounting to Rs. 5 crore. The first contribution was pledging Rs. 21 Lakh to PM-CARES Fund and the second contribution was of providing 5000 ration bags to Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation, Mumbai for the migrant workers and 1000 ration bags to Navi Mumbai Police Department to honour the tireless efforts taken by police personnel in the fight against COVID 19. As the nodal body of the pulses trade, we are proud lakh to be a part of all the relief work done so far and will always support all the state and central government efforts during such unprecedented times. We are the FIRST ASSOCIATION to come forward and contribute to the best of our capacity. We hope that our effort encourages other similar Associations to come forward and contribute. This is the time, that we need to come forward to take care of our fellow Indians and support them.”

IPGA, apart from the contribution of Rs. 21 to PM-CARES Fund which is in addition to the various amounts contributed by their members. The overall contribution from the Pulses Trade to PM-CARES Fund is close to Rs. 5 crores. This is over and above the contribution made by IPGA Members in the form of food grains, sanitizers, masks, gloves and similar essential commodities and products.

The first contribution was pledging Rs. 21 Lakh to PM-CARES Fund and the second contribution was of providing 5000 ration bags to Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation, Mumbai for the migrant workers and 1000 ration bags to Navi Mumbai Police Department to honour the tireless efforts taken by police personnel in the fight against COVID 19. As the nodal body of the pulses trade, we are proud lakh to be a part of all the relief work done so far and will always support all the state and central government efforts during such unprecedented times. We are the FIRST ASSOCIATION to come forward and contribute to the best of our capacity. We hope that our effort encourages other similar Associations to come forward and contribute. This is the time, that we need to come forward to take care of our fellow Indians and support them.”

IPGA, apart from the contribution of Rs. 21 to PM-CARES Fund which is in addition to the various amounts contributed by their members. The overall contribution from the Pulses Trade to PM-CARES Fund is close to Rs. 5 crores. This is over and above the contribution made by IPGA Members in the form of food grains, sanitizers, masks, gloves and similar essential commodities and products.

We are the FIRST ASSOCIATION to come forward and contribute to the best of our capacity. We hope that our effort encourages other similar Associations to come forward and contribute. This is the time, that we need to come forward to take care of our fellow Indians and support them.”

IPGA, apart from the contribution of Rs. 21 to PM-CARES Fund which is in addition to the various amounts contributed by their members. The overall contribution from the Pulses Trade to PM-CARES Fund is close to Rs. 5 crores. This is over and above the contribution made by IPGA Members in the form of food grains, sanitizers, masks, gloves and similar essential commodities and products.

IPGA provides 5000 disaster relief kits to under-privileged citizens affected by Cyclone Amphan

India Pulses and Grains Association (IPGA), the nodal body for India's pulses trade and industry today handed over 5000 disaster relief kits to Javed Ahmed Khan, MIC Disaster Management and Civil Defence, West Bengal to be distributed to the under-privileged citizens affected by the Cyclone Amphan in Kolkata. Each relief kit contains 5 kgs Rice, 1 kg Masoor Dal, 1 kg Sugar, 1 kg Salt and 1 litre Edible Oil.

Anurag Tulshan – IPGA Convenor, East Zone speaking about the initiative said, "Cyclone Amphan has created a havoc in Kolkata and the after effects have been tremendous. People are still suffering and unable to resume normal life. Daily livelihood has been impacted and getting food for survival is a challenge. IPGA decided to step up its contribution by providing 5000 disaster relief kits to the under privileged citizens of Kolkata. IPGA will always support the state government in every possible situation especially natural calamities."

While commenting on IPGA's overall contribution to the nation Bimal Kothari, Vice Chairman – IPGA said, "This initiative is third in the series of overall contribution of the pulses trade to the nation amounting to Rs. 5 crore. The first contribution was pledging Rs. 21 Lakh to PM-CARES Fund and the second contribution was of providing 5000 ration bags to Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation, Mumbai for the migrant workers and 1000 ration bags to Navi Mumbai Police Department to honour the tireless efforts taken by police personnel in the fight against COVID 19. ## IPGA provides 5000 disaster relief kits to under-privileged citizens affected by Cyclone Amphan

India Pulses and Grains Association (IPGA), the nodal body for India's pulses trade and industry today handed over 5000 disaster relief kits to Javed Ahmed Khan, MIC Disaster Management and Civil Defence, West Bengal to be distributed to the under-privileged citizens affected by the Cyclone Amphan in Kolkata. Each relief kit contains 5 kgs Rice, 1 kg Masoor Dal, 1 kg Sugar, 1 kg Salt and 1 litre Edible Oil.

Anurag Tulshan – IPGA Convenor, East Zone speaking about the initiative said, “Cyclone Amphan has created a havoc in Kolkata and the after effects have been tremendous. People are still suffering and unable to resume normal life. Daily livelihood has been impacted and getting food for survival is a challenge. IPGA decided to step up it's contribution by providing 5000 disaster relief kits to the under privileged citizens of Kolkata. IPGA will always support the state government in every possible situation especially natural calamities.”

While commenting on IPGA's overall contribution to the nation Bimal Kothari, Vice Chairman – IPGA said, “This initiative is third in the series of overall contribution of the pulses trade to the nation amounting to Rs. 5 crore. The first contribution was pledging Rs. 21 Lakh to PM-CARES Fund and the second contribution was of providing 5000 ration bags to Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation, Mumbai for the migrant workers and 1000 ration bags to Navi Mumbai Police Department to honour the tireless efforts taken by police personnel in the fight against COVID 19. As the nodal body of the pulses trade, we are proud lakh to be a part of all the relief work done so far and will always support all the state and central government efforts during such unprecedented times. We are the FIRST ASSOCIATION to come forward and contribute to the best of our capacity. We hope that our effort encourages other similar Associations to come forward and contribute. This is the time, that we need to come forward to take care of our fellow Indians and support them.”

IPGA, apart from the contribution of Rs. 21 to PM-CARES Fund which is in addition to the various amounts contributed by their members. The overall contribution from the Pulses Trade to PM-CARES Fund is close to Rs. 5 crores. This is over and above the contribution made by IPGA Members in the form of food grains, sanitizers, masks, gloves and similar essential commodities and products.
