

Ms Aashish Kasad

Aashish Kasad is a Chartered Accountant by profession, a Partner with a Big 4 and specialises in providing tax and regulatory services to her clients. Having started her career in 1996 with Arthur Andersen, Aashish has built a strong personal brand and reputation in her area of expertise, advising large global corporates on international tax and domestic tax issues.

Aashish was the Lead Partner supporting the Ministry of Food Processing Industries in 2017 as the Knowledge Partners for the first-ever World Food India conclave. Under her leadership, various thought leadership reports were published which are referenced as bibles by the industry.

Aashish is a regular speaker at professional forums in addition to having written several articles on various tax and regulatory issues.