

Profile of Avinash Bhala – Chief Executive Officer – GHB Group

Mr Avinash Bhala is currently looking after the business development and financial management for GHB Group. GHB group has diversified portfolio with Agri business as core of the GHB Group. GHB Group has made its domestic presence with its core value and interested in agri commodities – primarily manufacturing, trading and new avenue as providing manufacturing facilities to Corporate to help them for setting up the market with asset-lite concept.

GHB Group has recently entered into diversified business of Kraft Paper Manufacturing last year in 2021. GHB Group is also involved in providing business management support to various corporate which includes analysis of business with various risk (Financial, non-financial) and providing consultancy like setting up internal controls, designing organizational chart for better working of organization, Subsidy planning of Organization.

Mr Avinash Bhala is an enthusiastic and self-motivated person versatile experience with extensive Knowledge of Financial, Cost & Management matters.

He is Fellow member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, New Delhi.

He graduated with a Bachelors Degree in Commerce from Kolkatta University

He was Executive member of Dall Mill Association, Akola